GARRISON GETS CCDA SUPPORT

T-P 10/9/69

Candidates for Other Offices Endorsed

Mayor Victor H. Schiro's Crescent City Democratic Association has endorsed District Attorney Jim Garrison as a candidate for reelection, Francis S. Rutledge, chairman of the organization, announced Wednesday.

The CCDA previously had endorsed the candidacy for mayor of former Councilman James E. Fitzmorris Jr., and Wednesday Rutledge announced the endorsement of Garrison for district attorney along with the CCDA's support for candidates for various other offices to be contested in the Nov. 8 Democratic primary.

The other candidates endorsed by the CCDA are as follows:

Councilmen - at - large — James A. Moreau and Joseph V. Di Rosa.

District A councilman—Jack B. McGuire.

District B councilman—Harwood Koppel.

District C councilman—Clarence O. Dupuy Jr.

District D councilman—Peter J. Compagno.

District E councilman—Philip C. Ciaccio.

Coroner—Dr. Carl H. Rabin.

Clerk of Civil District Court —Thomas S. Buckley Sr.

Civil Sheriff—Milton A. Stire.

Clerk of Criminal District Court—Daniel B. Haggerty.

Recorder of mortgages—Francis J. Demarest Sr.

Constable of First City Court—Clyde F. Bel Sr.

Assessor for Fourth Municipal District—Richard F. Burke.

Assessor for Fifth Municipal District—James W. Smith.

Judge of Division "A", Civil District Court—Thomas A. Early Jr.

Judge of Section "D", Juvenile Court—Edward G. Gillin.

State representative from Representative District 26 (Ninth Ward and six precincts of Eighth Ward)—Bill Christmas.